PASTOR'S PAGE

From Pastor's Desk
 Philippians 1:9 New International Version (NIV)
 9 And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight

Just recently someone visited Trinity and expressed the welcoming love that they received. I was excited to hear that the people of Trinity are embracing visitors and welcoming them as friends in Christ. That is one of the main things the church should be doing. Whenever someone new walks through our doors, they should be met with a sincere joy and delight that will make a good and lasting first impression.

We should also be spreading that love into our community. There are many in our community that do not know the love of Jesus. If we can discern who these people are and make the right effort in reaching out to them, we can keep a light on and an open door for them to walk through when they just may need God the most.

Paul's prayer to the church at Philippi was highly effective because it became a major base for the spreading of the Gospel all across the Mediterranean. I encourage us all to live out Trinity UMC's mission of "Connecting People to God and One Another" no matter where you may be.

Pastor Jeff

NEW CHURCH

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

With our annual conference coming up it is time to nominate new committee chairs and members for the upcoming year. The Committee on Lay Leadership will soon start the nominations process. When you joined the church you made a covenant to support the church with your prayers, presence, gifts and service. So when a member of the committee contacts you won't you please prayerfully consider serving the church?

PRIMETIMERS

A fall trip to the Horicon Educational Center is what the Primetimers have plans for in October. They invite anyone who may be interested to check out the bulletin board in the Narthex for details of the trip which is planned for Thursday, Oct. 6 leaving the church at 9:00 AM. A beautiful fall drive is in store for those who go on the trip as well a great experience at the center. Participants will enjoy lunch and fellowship as well. Check out the bulletin board and sign up.

HARVEST SUPPER

Harvest Supper is right around the corner. This year the date is October 19. This community dinner is a great fundraiser as well as a chance to reach out to our community. Susan and Gene Hutchings have once again agreed to organize the dinner for us. Watch for ways in which you can help. If you have any ideas please talk to Susan.

STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

“Teach your children right from wrong and when they are grown they will still do right.” Pr. 22:6

With school starting again, children everywhere are learning the wonders of addition and subtraction. These are lessons that begin in the earliest grades and carry us through the rest of our lives. They are also lessons we use as we live our faith through our financial giving. Do you teach the children around you about how to say “thank you” to God by giving a portion of everything you have back to God?

Consider: Do you manage your finances or do your finances manage you? One of the keys to becoming a good steward is learning to manage your money. Call it a budget or whatever ... you must plan how you spend, or you will continue to be a victim of marketing, commercials, and impulse purchasing.

Good stewards start by setting aside “God’s Share”, then the necessities of life, and finally discretionary items. Poor stewards do it in the exact opposite order. Good stewardship brings peace and contentment. Poor stewardship leads to chaos and crises. Listen and pray. Try to find out what God is calling you to do and model for the children around you!

HE'S EVERYWHERE

A mother asked her little boy to please get the broom from the back porch. “But it’s dark out there!” he protested.

“Don’t be scared,” Mom said. “Jesus is out there. He’ll take care of you.” When the child looked skeptical, his mother continued, “Jesus is everywhere. You’ll be safe.”

After a moment, the boy went to the back door and cracked it open. Peering into the dark, he called, “Jesus, if you’re out there, will you please hand me the broom?”

SCRIP SHOPPING CARDS

Many stores and businesses sell their shopping cards to the church at a discounted rate. If you buy these cards through the church you still get the full face value of the card and the church gets the so it costs you nothing extra to support the church. If you are thinking of a large purchase such as a new TV or computer why not ask Susan to order extra cards for you to pay for it. It would make a great addition to your giving to the church.

PRAYER GARDEN

In a few short weeks it will be time to prepare the garden for winter and the coming changes of seasons. Some of the grasses need to be trimmed, urns and pots need to be cleared of the frost bitten annuals plus there is fertilizing to be done. There is a need for some volunteer help to do these things. If you are one who may have a little time to spare and would be willing to help please call the church office. Arrangements can be made for working together for couple of hours when these things can all be done. Your help can be what is needed to keep the garden thriving.

WORD WORMS

Word Worms will meet on Friday October 14 at 10:00 AM to discuss the book Leaving Time by Jodi Picoult.

Publisher's Weekly says this about the book: Picoult's novel explores grief, memory, and motherhood through the unlikely lens of elephant behavior. Jenna Metcalf was three years old when her mother, Alice, disappeared from the elephant sanctuary where she worked as a researcher. Ten years later, Jenna is ready to launch a search. After poring over her mother's research journals, consulting the Internet, and visiting her father in the mental institution where he's been since shortly after the disappearance, she enlists outside assistance from Serenity Jones, a once-famous psychic whose gift appears to have deserted her, and Virgil Stanhope, the gruff, alcoholic ex-police detective who was once assigned to Alice's case. With their help, Jenna finds new evidence at the now-closed sanctuary and begins to piece together the events of the night her mother disappeared, leading her to a few uncomfortable truths about the past, but bringing much-needed closure to her and her dad. Longtime fans of Picoult will recognize some of her stock characters—the precocious, sassy teenager; the distant, philosophical mother; the curmudgeonly surrogate father figure—as well as her trademark twist ending, which may well be her strangest to date. When she diverges from her usual formula her storytelling skills are most evident. The pachyderms are as complex as the humans, making the journey memorable and poignant.

Please join us for a cup of coffee and some lively conversation – even if you have not yet read this book.
