PASTOR'S PAGE

"I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us." Romans 8:18 (NIV)

Many times, the New Year can bring a mixed bag of emotions and memories for people. Some may have just experienced the best year ever and look forward to an even greater one just ahead.

Others may have just had a year of trudging through one deep struggle after another. The new calendar year brings desperate hope for things to be better, with an ache of the still-fresh wounds slowly beginning their healing process.

Whether you've just walked through the greatest year of your life, or are incredibly glad to see this one finally over, one truth still rings clear amidst it all. You are not alone. Not ever.

Our God will always be with us. On the heels of the wonder of Christmas, we can carry the power of that wonder to a new, fresh new year. Even though things are constantly changing around us, God remains with us and never changes.

We need to give thanks to God for all the things that have come into our lives in the past year, and for the Spirit to lead each step as we embark upon a new year. Be sure to pray for God's wisdom, strength and power to be continually with us as we embark upon a new year.

As followers of Christ, we hear the call, the invitation, and the encouragement to make positive change. Just as our bodies need rest to achieve our individual goals; our spiritual lives need refreshment as we rest in the knowledge of God's love for us, so that we can truly live out Trinity's mission to "Connect People to God and One Another" throughout the new year.

I pray that God's Good Glory will be revealed in the work you do for the Kingdom of God this coming year.

Blessings,
Pastor Jeff

THE PRAYER CHAIN

We have a wonderful group of prayer warriors just waiting for your prayer requests. If you have someone or something you would like us to pray for please call the church office to have it added to our chain. Prayer helps – let us help.

STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

“For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away.”(Matthew 25:29)

Matthew 25 shares a series of parables describing the Kingdom of God. In the parable of the talents (Matt 25:14-30) the master leaves his immense wealth (the equivalent of 160 annual salaries) in the hands of his servants. Two servants double what they were entrusted with; while one only returns the talent he was given.

The master rewards the two successful servants with even more responsibility, but casts out the unsuccessful servant. Clearly, stewardship is central to discipleship in the Kingdom of God. The punishment of the poor steward seems severe, but the stakes were incredibly high. Thus, it is with our stewardship. Making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world is our job alone. What will we have to show for it when the Master returns?

Therefore, we must strengthen our stewardship so we can be the best disciples possible, not out of fear of punishment, but out of an abundant desire to do what is right and what pleases the Lord. Like a gymnast or musician, we are always looking for those occasions when it all seems to happen perfectly—in our prayers, presence, service, witness and in our giving. God does not just want our average performance, but our best prayers, our most engaged presence, our most selfless service to others, our deep and abiding witness, and our sacrificial giving. Of course, we know there will be difficulties along the way, but we have the assurance of God’s abundance.

SCRIP SHOPPING CARDS

 Many stores and businesses sell their shopping cards to the church at a discounted rate. If you buy these cards through the church you still get the full face value of the card and the church gets the discount, so it costs you nothing extra to support the church. If you are thinking of a large purchase such as a new TV or computer why not ask Susan to order extra cards for you to pay for it. It would make a great addition to your giving to the church.

Susan usually has the basic Walmart and Kwik Trip cards on hand all the time. If there is a special store you are interested in purchasing cards from talk to Susan and she will see if they are available

INK CARTRIDGES AND ALUMINUM CANS

Remember the church recycles ink cartridges and aluminum cans. Just drop your empty cartridges in the box inside the front door, and your aluminum cans in the box next to the shed on the east side of the parking lot. We have volunteers who take them in for payment.

PARISH NURSE NEWS

Grief Through The Holidays

The Holidays can be a very busy and happy time for individuals to be excited about. It is a time of year of traditions, as well as remembering past Christmases that have been celebrated with family and friends. For others who have lost a loved one, either recently, or years ago, memories come flooding into our minds and hearts. Our emotions take over, and we find ourselves not feeling like we did during the Holidays, as we once had.

When a loved one dies and leaves those behind, it can be a time of uncertainty, fear, and sadness. It is during this time of grief that we may discover things about ourselves that we never knew. We may not have known how strong we can be, and how much Faith sustains us. Grief is not easy, nor is it predictable. Grief is a process that lends itself to allowing us to know that we are not alone, and that God is with us every step of the way. During this Holiday Season, practice patience and understanding of the process of Grief. Keeping those we remember, in our hearts and prayers. God is walking this journey with you.

THANK YOU TO....

- Mindy and Heidi for their dedication to teaching our Sunday School
- All who have served on the committees of the church this past year and all those who have agreed to serve this coming year
- Geff Gardner for the use of his wagon for caroling, it was a great time

FROM THE CORRECT PERSPECTIVE

A child sat at his grandmother's feet as she embroidered. Looking up, he saw a mishmash of threads and ugly knots but no discernible picture or words. "Nana," he said with concern, "that's not very pretty." "Come up here," Grandma invited, "and look at it from this side. You have to see it from my perspective."

"Oh!" the boy exclaimed then. "It's beautiful!"

Seeing the world from our human, earthly viewpoint, we can't grasp the masterpiece that God is completing. But when we finally see it from his perspective, we'll discover that the threads and knots all contribute to a beautiful work of art. That work won't be finished until Jesus returns, but in the meantime, may God grant us an occasional glimpse of the work in progress — from God's side!

WORD WORMS

The Word Worms Book Club will meet on Friday January 12 at 10:00 AM at the church in the Fellowship Hall. They will be discussing the book On Mystic Lake by Kirstin Hannah.

In the book Annie Colwater's husband has just confessed that he's in love with a younger woman. Devastated, Annie retreats to the small town where she grew up. There, she is reunited with her first love, Nick Delacroix, a recent widower who is unable to cope with his silent, emotionally scarred young daughter. Together, the three of them begin to heal. But just when Annie believes she's been given a second chance at happiness, her world is turned upside down again, and she is forced to make a choice that no woman in love should ever have to make.

Even if you have not read the book join us for a cup of coffee and some lively conversation. There's lots of room around the table.
