PASTOR'S ARTICLE

Matthew 6:21 "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also."

Trinity UMC Montello – Fifteen Years From Now

Fifteen-ish years ago (which doesn't seem like it was in the distant past), Hannah's dad and I found out that we were going to have a baby girl. I couldn't have been happier! We spent our time reading about how to care for a baby, we spent our money on things to take care of the baby, we spent our attention on planning for the baby. We were so anxious to meet her that our excitement was palpable! People would say things like, "You're glowing!" And, "You look so happy! "Guess where our hearts were. You didn't need to look far to know that our hearts were where our treasure was.

I remember thinking, "What on earth did we spend our time, our energy and our money on before Hannah?" She came into our lives and we automatically made room. This happened kind of magically. I remember not eating out as much – not a big deal. When my jeans started to get worn, I wore them six months longer. There was less waste in our refrigerator. We set the thermostat lower at night.

How does this relate to the church?

In the five months I've been your pastor, I've been impressed by the passion and generosity of this charming, small-town church. I delight in walking along-side you in your faith journey and helping you grow in your discipleship.

When I arrived, I was made aware that we had some financial challenges. Most churches do these days. Growing apathy and dying dedicated members have taken a toll. Over the past year, some of our biggest financial supporters had been promoted to heaven. Although it would be great to think that the church magically exists for the glory of God, it still has bills and salaries to pay. It has worship and education to offer, and ideally, mission to support. We have a budget.

Right now, we are in a challenging place as Trinity UMC Montello. We are able to take care of our financial obligations for the short term. But, with our bare-boned budget as it is, we are currently taking a couple thousand out of our savings each month to meet our obligations. Already we have stopped paying on some of our obligations in hopes of making some headway. In a few months the well will be dry and we'll have to figure out how to exist in a different way.

What will Trinity look like 15 years from now? Well, that's up to you. Hypothetically, it could be a growing congregation with a satellite location in Oxford, or it could be a shrinking church with a shared pastor who comes around on Sunday mornings to preach.

It's time to roll up our sleeves. Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. Is your treasure here? If so, we need your help sooner rather than later. We need to be able to turn things around so that Trinity can be sustainable in this community. I'd like to ask you to seriously consider the following:

1. Re-examine your stewardship practices. Is God getting your first and best? Is this an opportunity to take a step of faith to increase your giving? One way to improve accountability and take the strain of remembering to write that check it to set up automatic deposit. It's simple! Just fill out the quick form found in the information rack by the church office.
2. Gifts can take all sorts of forms. In fact, you can give gifts of stocks or bonds, stock/ bond interest, property, residue of estate, designate certain assets, or make the church an official beneficiary. Put a note in the collection plate that you would like to schedule this conversation.
3. You can give a large one-time gift in honor or in memory of someone.
4. If you don't give anything, start by giving something. If you give a little bit, open your heart to God and give a little more.

Currently our Finance team is working on various stewardship campaigns and fundraisers. We are focusing on the best ways to get out into the community, we are pouring our best into events

Trinity United Methodist Church and activities that will attract people, we are stepping boldly into exciting Sunday school curriculum and I am getting to know folks and forging my very best sermons.

Every day I lift us up on prayer. I believe that God has a plan for us here at Trinity. I believe that I am in the midst of passionate people.

I have one more story for you. Two years ago, I attended Dave Ramsay’s Financial Peace University. It was life transforming! One of the challenges that was put to us was this: “If your child was dying and you needed one thousand dollars by the end of the week to get lifesaving medicine. Could you get it?” My first thought was, “Geez! What?!” Then I put myself in the situation. I thought, If Hannah’s life were on the line, could I make this happen? Motivation! I sold some things on Craigslist that had sentimental value, but I seldom used and did some odd jobs. In a week I came up with $1000.00 that I didn’t realize I had. And you know what? I don’t miss the things I sold. It actually was quite empowering. It took a lot of work, but was it worth it? Yes! I had no idea I had anything of value. What I had was a bunch of stuff with little value put together.

What I’m asking you to do is something like this. Get creative. The church needs you now. God needs you now. I need you now. Let us prayerfully go forward as we push this thing up the hill.

~Pastor Kristen

STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

1 Therefore if you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any common sharing in the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion,² then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and of one mind.³ Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves. (Philippians 2:1-3)

The folks at Network for Good remind us that giving is a human transaction; we usually give for reasons of the heart (emotionally) rather than for reasons of the head (rationally). Here are some reasons that donors have given for their contributions:

- Someone I know asked me to give, and I wanted to help them
- Felt emotionally moved by someone’s story
- Want to feel I’m not powerless in the face of need and can help (this is especially true during disasters)
- Want to feel I’m changing someone’s life
- Feel a sense of closeness to my church
- Want to memorialize someone
- Was raised to give to church—it’s tradition in my family
- It makes me feel connected to other people and builds my social network
- Want to have a good image of myself/my family
- Want to leave a legacy that perpetuates my support for the church
- Feel fortunate and want to give something back to others
- My faith teaches me to support the church
- Want to be seen as a leader/role model

Why do you give? The stewardship leaders of your church should be asking this question of you on a regular basis. If they don’t, ask them why not?

SCRIP SHOPPING CARDS

Many stores and businesses sell their shopping cards to the church at a discounted rate. If you buy these cards through the church you still get the full face value of the card and the church gets the discount, so it costs you nothing extra to support the church. If you are thinking of a large purchase such as a new TV or computer, why not ask Susan to order extra cards for you to pay for it. It would make a great addition to your giving to the church.

Susan usually has the basic Walmart and Kwik Trip cards on hand all the time. If there is a special store you are interested in purchasing cards from talk to Susan and she will see if they are available.

ELECTRONIC GIVING

Do you have a hard time remembering your giving envelope each Sunday? Would you like to not have to write a check to the church each week? Then electronic giving might be for you. You can have funds transferred directly from your checking or savings account to the church account – it can be done bi-monthly, monthly or quarterly.

Only regular offering to the general fund can be done electronically all special giving must be done manually. Its safe secure and easy just ask someone who already does it. If you are interested ask Vikki for a form to fill out.

KWIK TRIP REWARDS PROGRAM

If you use a Kwik Trip card to pay for your gas and purchases you know about the Kwik rewards program. Did you know you can have your rewards donated to a group of your choice? Trinity is signed up with their rewards program, our number is 150881. If you would like to supplement your church giving by donating your rewards just call Kwik Trip at 608-781-8988 and let them know. As a bonus Kwik Trip adds about 30% to the total donated. For more information, talk to Vikki in the church office

INK CARTRIDGES AND ALUMINUM CANS

Remember the church recycles ink cartridges and aluminum cans. Just drop your empty cartridges in the box in the narthex, and your aluminum cans in the box next to the shed on the east side of the parking lot. We have volunteers who take them in for payment.

You can now manage your giving online! Giving on line is easy and allows you to make a one-time donation or to set up recurring contributions and view your complete online giving history from anywhere you have access to the internet. Simply follow these easy steps:

CHITCHAT GROUP MEETS

Members of the Chitchat Group will resume their monthly meetings by gathering at the home of Mary Anderson, 23 Lake Shore Drive, at 1:00 PM on Wednesday, April 10, where they will share dessert and fellowship. An important function of the group is the running of the Thrift Shop. So, all who are involved in that way are urged to attend. An invitation is extended to anyone who might be interested to come and be a part of the group.

CHURCH CAMP

 We have two awesome Methodist church camps both within an hour of Montello. Camp is not just for kids anymore. There are family camps. Grandparent camps as well as camps for kids. Camp is a time filled with fun activities such as campfires, games, hiking, boating, swimming and fellowship when campers learn about God and his love for us.

Also if you refer a friend you can get a $50 credit on your registration – a great reason to invite someone to camp with you and they do not have to belong to a Methodist Church!

Remember the church pays for ½ the cost of your camp and there are scholarships from the conference to help with the other half – don't let the cost stop you from attending camp this summer. You can see the camp booklet online at www.wiumcamps.org. For more information, talk to Lauren Olson.

WORD WORMS

Our book club will meet on Friday April 12 at 10:00 AM in the fellowship hall. We will be discussing the book Before We Were Yours by Lisa Wingate.

“Two families, generations apart, are forever changed by a heartbreaking injustice in this poignant novel, inspired by a true story, for readers of ORPHAN TRAIN and THE NIGHTINGALE.

Memphis, 1939. Twelve-year-old Rill Foss and her four younger siblings live a magical life aboard their family's Mississippi River shantyboat. But when their father must rush their mother to the hospital one stormy night, Rill is left in charge --- until strangers arrive in force. Wrenched from all that is familiar and thrown into a Tennessee Children's Home Society orphanage, the Foss children are assured that they will soon be returned to their parents --- but they quickly realize the dark truth. At the mercy of the facility's cruel director, Rill fights to keep her sisters and brother together in a world of danger and uncertainty.

Aiken, South Carolina, present day. Born into wealth and privilege, Avery Stafford seems to have it all: a successful career as a federal prosecutor, a handsome fiancé, and a lavish wedding on the horizon. But when Avery returns home to help her father weather a health crisis, a chance encounter leaves her with uncomfortable questions and compels her to take a journey through her family's long-hidden history, on a path that will ultimately lead either to devastation or to redemption.

Based on one of America's most notorious real-life scandals --- in which Georgia Tann, director of a Memphis-based adoption organization, kidnapped and sold poor children to wealthy families all over the country --- Lisa Wingate's riveting, wrenching and ultimately uplifting tale reminds us how, even though the paths we take can lead to many places, the heart never forgets where we belong.”

Even if you have not read the book join us for a cup of coffee and some great conversation.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

It takes many volunteers to help the church run smoothly. Won't you consider helping out, some of the opportunities available are:

HEAD USHER

We are in desperate need of volunteers to be head ushers. The responsibilities are not huge or hard – make sure lights are on, assist with visitors and direct ushers with bulletins and offering. There is always someone around to help you out.

COFFEE HOUR

We are looking for someone to take a turn at setting up the coffee cart for the narthex on a Sunday morning. The coffee and juice are provided by the church; you just need to provide a light snack – a few cookies or fruit is great.

LITURGISTS

Our list of volunteers to be liturgist on Sundays is getting very short. This too is not hard - but is a vital part of our worship service.

If you would like more information or would like to volunteer for any of these jobs, please talk to Pastor Kristen or Vikki in the church office.

Tomb, thou shalt not hold him longer;
Death is strong, but life is stronger.
Stronger than the dark, the light;
Stronger than the wrong, the right.
Faith and hope triumphant say,
Christ will rise on Easter Day.
