PASTOR MESSAGE

1 Samuel 16:7 (Paraphrase Rev. K. Lowe) "People judge us based on what they see and label us how they will. But God looks at our thoughts and intentions. God sees us as we truly are."

Last month we spent a lot of time talking about David in the Old Testament. We talked about perceptions; how we see ourselves, how God sees us and how we see others.

Have you ever felt like you were worthless or that your life didn't matter? In scripture, David was a little shepherd boy. He was the least of his father's sons. In fact, when Samuel came to anoint the new king of Israel as God had instructed, he thought it could be any one of Jesse's sons. They were all big and strong, handsome and accomplished! When the Lord chose none of these men, everyone was perplexed. Samuel said, "Is this ALL of your sons?" They all kind of looked at each other and said, "Well, yeah. There's little David, who's out in the field, but he really doesn't matter. It's not going to be him."

Have you ever been in that kind of situation? It hurts.

But, I think what God is showing us here is that people try to label us based on what they perceive... which is pretty limited! God sees the whole of us. God knows us individually. God knows every hair on our head. And, because we are redeemed through Jesus Christ, we are sinless in God's eyes. We are forgiven and we are loved beyond measure.

In my experience, we don't need people to chop us down. We each do a pretty good job of that ourselves. We can be pretty hard on ourselves! Does that mean we shouldn't take responsibility? No. It means that we should do our very best in response to God's love for us and realize that we can't be perfect. It also means we need to love ourselves. It's kind of hard to love others if we don't love ourselves.

I don't know how David felt. The Bible gives us a rough idea that David did not judge himself. He simply had faith that God loved him and that was enough. Thus, David loved himself and others because of and through the love of God in him.

There's a picture of a little orange tabby kitten looking in a mirror and seeing a lion. Scripture tells us, "I can do all things through God who strengthens me." Philippians 4:13.

You can do great and mighty things, my friend! And, if the God of the universe thinks you are amazing, who is mere mortal man to say otherwise? Believe in you! I do!

~Pastor Kristen

TO GOD YOU SHALL RETURN

The traditional Ash Wednesday words "Remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return" might seem depressing. But in our often death-denying culture, some might find it refreshing to hear the frank statement that we can do nothing to save ourselves, physically or spiritually — that, no matter how we try to avoid sin, we can't untangle ourselves from self-interest. How liberating, then, to know we don't have to! God loves us as we are and sent Jesus to break sin's power over us.

A pastor described Ash Wednesday as the point you can pinch in the middle of a long piece of ribbon, such that when you lift it high, the two ends — one symbolizing our baptism and the other, our funeral — meet and touch. We come from dust and will return to dust, but we also come from God and will return to God. Ash Wednesday reminds us that we're always safe in God's love.

STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

The wicked borrow and do not repay, but the righteous give generously. (2 Psalm 37:21)

People give to the church for a variety of reasons that form a hierarchy of motivations. Where they fall on the hierarchy is related closely to how much, proportionately, they give; how willingly they give; how they respond to being asked to pledge their support to the mission and ministry of the church, and how openly they talk about their giving. What motivates you to give?

Some people feel called to give out of their faith. Giving generously feels right and natural. It is a part of their discipleship. In turn, they are grateful for their own blessings including a place in the church where they can contribute.

Some people feel fulfilled by giving. They derive joy, energy and good feelings from giving. They value the church in their lives and want to support it so it is there for others.

Some people value giving as a duty. It is the right thing to do and creates good in the world. Giving influences the community for good and connects the giver with the community.

Some people would feel guilty if they did not give. They feel giving is something they should do, even if they would rather not. Alternatively, that fear they will be shamed if they do not give.

Finally, some people feel coerced. They feel their situation compels them to give. Which of these describes why you give? Which do you think would be most pleasing to God?

Next month, how to move up the hierarchy...

Susan usually has the basic Walmart and Kwik Trip cards on hand all the time. If there is a special store you are interested in purchasing cards from talk to Susan and she will see if they are available.

WOMEN'S OUTREACH UPCOMING EVENT

March 9 10:00 AM Word Worms
April 14 10:00 AM Word Worms

WORD WORMS

The book club will meet on Friday March 8 at 10:00 AM in the fellowship hall to discuss the book Death by Chocolate Cherry Cheesecake by Sarah Graves.

“Trading in her hammer for a spatula, Jake and her best friend, Ellie White, have opened a spanking new shop on the main drag of Eastport, Maine. Just next door to Second Hand Rose, a resale shop run by always-trendy Miss Halligan, the Chocolate Moose has been a success since the day Jake and Ellie hung their big wooden sign out front. Even the discovery of cranky Matt Muldoon face down in a vat of melted chocolate does little to stem the tide of customers. Jake and Ellie move temporarily to the kitchen of her massive old Victorian while police chief Bob Arnold checks the Moose for clues, much to the annoyance of Jake’s stepmom, Bella Diamond, who’s afraid all that baking will mess up her sparkling clean counters. So as soon as the crime scene tape comes off, they plunge back in. After all, they’ve promised to create a dozen of their signature chocolate cherry cheesecakes to donate to the town’s Fourth of July auction, held each year to pay for the fireworks. And even though it’s not certain that there will be fireworks, since a hurricane sits poised for a direct hit on Eastport, Jake and Ellie want to keep busy, because Bob’s made it clear that as soon as the fundraiser is over, he’s ready to arrest Ellie for Muldoon’s murder. As her handywoman heroine reinvents herself in chocolate, Graves adds enough physical danger to her comfy tale of small-town mayhem to move it into the somewhat oxymoronic range of the cozy thriller.”

Even if you have not read the book join us for some great conversation, a cup of coffee and maybe a snack.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

We begin NEW Sunday School curriculum on Sunday, March 10th.

We will be using Children's Ministry's "Easter Eggs" along with their special "Hosanna" lesson on Palm Sunday. Each week the kids will look at a different "Easter Egg" to learn a fun, Easter bible lesson; Plastic eggs, Rotten eggs, Broken eggs, and Easter eggs. We are also looking forward to taking part in Trinity's Palm Sunday worship as well.

The memory verse is “Jesus said to her, ‘I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies.’” John 11:25 (NIV)

Please note: There will not be Sunday School on March 24th (Montello schools Spring Break).

CHURCH CAMP

We have two awesome Methodist church camps both within an hour of Montello. Camp is not just for kids anymore. There are family camps. Grandparent camps as well as camps for kids. Camp is a time filled with fun activities such as campfires, games, hiking, boating, swimming and fellowship when campers learn about God and his love for us.

Those who finalize their registration by March 31 will receive a camp t-shirt for free. Also if you refer a friend you can get a $50 credit on your registration – a great reason to invite someone to camp with you and they do not have to belong to a Methodist Church!

Remember the church pays for ½ the cost of your camp and there are scholarships from the conference to help with the other half – don’t let the cost stop you from attending camp this summer. You can see the camp booklet online at www.wiumcamps.org. For more information, talk to Lauren Olson.

Please sign up on the sheets on the bulletin board next to the office, or you can call the church office, 297-2326 to make a dedication.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

It takes many volunteers to help the church run smoothly. Won't you consider helping out, some of the opportunities available are:

HEAD USHER

We are in desperate need of volunteers to be head ushers. The responsibilities are not huge or hard – make sure lights are on, assist with visitors and direct ushers with bulletins and offering. There is always someone around to help you out.

COFFEE HOUR

We are looking for someone to take a turn at setting up the coffee cart for the narthex on a Sunday morning. The coffee and juice are provided by the church; you just need to provide a light snack – a few cookies or fruit is great.

LITURGISTS

Our list of volunteers to be liturgist on Sundays is getting very short. This too is not hard - but is a vital part of our worship service.

If you would like more information or would like to volunteer for any of these jobs, please talk to Pastor Kristen or Vikki in the church office.

NEWSLETTER ARTICLES

If you have an event or belong to a group in the community and you would like to share its happenings with your church family please let the church office know so it may be included in the newsletter.

NURSERY AVAILABLE

Trinity is again offering supervised childcare for children 5 and under during church. You can bring your child in before church begins or at any time during the service. We are located in the Sunday School room on the left side of the hallway. Any questions, please ask or contact Tanya Daniels 608-369-0449.

FAITH JOURNEY

A family was heading on vacation: two little ones were nestled in car seats; the van was packed. As Dad locked the house and Mom secured the garage, an adult neighbor the kids knew walked up and spoke through an open window. "Where are you going?" The kids shrugged. "Well, what road are you taking?" the friend asked with a knowing smile. Of course, they had no idea. "Do you know where you'll eat today, or where you'll spend the night?" Blank stares. Then the friend asked, "Who are you traveling with?" The children broke into grins and shouted, "Mommy and Daddy!"

On the journey of faith, we don't know precisely where we're headed or how all our needs will be met. But we know who we're traveling with: our loving God who is fully aware of the twists and turns ahead; the loving Parent who promises to care for us wherever we go.
