Dr. Ronnie Floyd, president of the National Day of Prayer, announced Tuesday that the theme of the 2019 observance on Thursday, May 2, will be “Love One Another,” based upon the words of Jesus in John 13:34, which says, “Love one another. Just as I have loved you.”

“Love can change America,” Floyd said in announcing the theme to a gathering of leaders from across the country. Join all in prayer on Thursday May 2.

PASTOR'S ARTICLE

Are You Looking for Healing?

As the days get longer and we finally may be out of winter's grip (knock on wood), I can see the signs of spring all around us. Little buds are appearing on trees, perennials are showing that they are not dead as they appeared, but they are alive after all! Our snow-birds who leave for southern parts to escape the frigid temps have it figured out. But the fact remains, that for this part of the country, anyway, the seasons are really an important reminder to us, that everything needs to rest. If we don't take down-time, our bodies will break down.

As a result of the curse of Adam and Eve, disease, sickness and illness are still part of the big picture and still in full operation on this earth. As we all know, anyone of us at any time can get sick.

I think sometimes we forget that even Jesus was subject to this condition. Jesus was aware that his body was one of flesh and blood and he was prone to getting run down and tired and even down-right crabby if he didn't replenish himself regularly!

In the upcoming weeks, we are going to be exploring spiritual health and healing. I believe healing actually started at the empty tomb. We were healed of sin, which healed us from death... we are no longer slaves, trapped forever in these mortal bodies! We have been set free! And yes, even though this body may be suffering some physical ailment, we can still be spiritually whole!

As a practice, we really don't do a very good job of taking care of ourselves. Unfortunately, sometimes illness has to step in and shut us down so that we have to stop. One of the very first things God demonstrated for us was rest. On the seventh day, God rested. Why on earth (pardon the pun) would God need to rest?!? He's GOD for crying out loud! I think the word we struggle to use here is "connect." To me, connecting means to connect with God, to one's self, to the earth, to lost wonder, to breathing and being, to fascination, to slowing down and remembering, to letting the Holy Spirit take our hand as if we were little children again. If we don't rest or "connect" we might as well be dry bones.

And Jesus, no matter how busy he was, took time to rest or "connect." He would see the work in front of him, and stop. He knew that if he was going to be any good to anybody, he needed to connect himself. There would always be people needing. He could heal people 24/7 and still not have healed everyone. He needed to simply stop and make time for himself despite the crowd pressing in. We learn that he models this for us in scripture. God models it in Genesis and Jesus models it in the New Testament. We are given permission to stop and connect. We are given permission to stop the work and let the healing begin.

Luke 5:16 tells us, "Jesus Himself would often slip away to the wilderness and pray." This indicates that he had to "slip away," or sneak away. He had to leave covertly without people noticing or they would have stopped him. There was always going to be more to do. He had to make connecting happen.

Luke 4:42 says, "When day came, Jesus left and went to a secluded place; and the crowds were searching for Him, and came to Him and tried to keep Him from going away from them." Wow! This verse is really telling. In this one it almost makes Jesus look cruel! The crowds are searching for him and he's actually hiding from them! They need his help and he is literally trying to get away from them! What an interesting perspective of our Lord! Sometimes I think we feel we need to sacrifice everything we have to be a Christian. But in reality, we can't. Jesus couldn't keep going at the pace he was going. He needed to rest.

There are many other verses that depict similar situations. The point is, we have to remember that God put this frailty in us to help us seek him. If we didn't get tired or ill or run down, maybe we wouldn't ever take the time to stop and just connect. Wouldn't that be sad?

I think what Jesus did was prioritize. He saw the needs of the people. But he saw the need of connection with God as a greater priority. Maybe that meant being alone and sitting by the water's edge and seeing God's image in the clouds. Maybe that meant hearing God's voice in the bird song in the garden. Whatever it was, time with God was refreshing for his soul. He could talk to God and revive his spirit. That's something we all need.

Interestingly enough, when we care for the human spirit, the body responds. There are actual studies that follow the wisdom of the state of the spirit on the physical body. If someone is happy and at peace and feeling good, the body responds quite well. If someone is agitated, pessimistic and rather cynical, the body typically responds likewise. It's interesting, isn't it?

You have an opportunity today to experience great healing. You can make a choice to heal your body and your soul. Jesus says, "Take time to connect with me today. I enjoy our time together. Stop and just be in my presence. Let the healing begin."

May springtime blossom within you.

STEWARSHIP MESSAGE

God owns everything. “The earth is the Lord’s and all that is in it, the world, and those who live in it.” (Psalm 24:1)

April showers bring May flowers....and a variety of rummage sales.

Preparing to make my gifts and offerings to the annual church rummage sale is quite a cleansing process. I discover treasures that have been buried or ignored for years, yet at one time I couldn’t live without them! My hope in taking them to the church rummage sale is that my gift will become a marvelous treasure once again for a new owner.

It is important for each of us to sift and sort through our many possessions from time to time. What we often discover are items which we no longer need but which could be transformed into marvelous “charitable gifts.”

Perhaps you have stocks purchased long ago which have increased in value but don’t provide much current income. Perhaps your family has property or real estate bought long ago but now it just takes energy and money to maintain. Perhaps you discover an old insurance policy which was paid up long ago but is no longer needed for its original purpose.

All of these “treasures” can be transformed into wonderful charitable gifts. With the help and guidance of the Wisconsin United Methodist Foundation your church can do many good things with charitable gifts like these right now! Consider what God is calling you to give.

Did you know we can help you liquidate shares of stock or shares of a mutual fund to make a special summer gift to help your church get through the summer months? What’s even better is that we can do this for any United Methodist Church or ministry at no selling fee or commission, and you avoid paying capital gains taxes! Call or email us today.

Susan usually has the basic Walmart and Kwik Trip cards on hand all the time. If there is a special store you are interested in purchasing cards from talk to Susan and she will see if they are available.

WORD WORMS

The book club will meet on Friday May 10 at 10:00 AM in the fellowship hall. They will be discussing the book A Gentleman In Moscow by Amor Towles

“Sentenced to house arrest in Moscow's Metropol Hotel by a Bolshevik tribunal for writing a poem deemed to encourage revolt, Count Alexander Rostov nonetheless lives the fullest of lives, discovering the depths of his humanity.

Inside the elegant Metropol, located near the Kremlin and the Bolshoi, the Count slowly adjusts to circumstances as a "Former Person." He makes do with the attic room, to which he is banished after residing for years in a posh third-floor suite.
A man of refined taste in wine, food, and literature, he strives to maintain a daily routine, exploring the nooks and crannies of the hotel, bonding with staff, accepting the advances of attractive women, and forming what proves to be a deeply meaningful relationship with a spirited young girl, Nina. "We are bound to find comfort from the notion that it takes generations for a way of life to fade," says the companionable narrator.
For the Count, that way of life ultimately becomes less about aristocratic airs and privilege than generosity and devotion. Spread across four decades, this is in all ways a great novel, a nonstop pleasure brimming with charm, personal wisdom, and philosophic insight. Though Stalin and Khrushchev make their presences felt, Towles largely treats politics as a dark, distant shadow.
The chill of the political events occurring outside the Metropol is certainly felt, but for the Count and his friends, the passage of time is "like the turn of a kaleidoscope." Not for nothing is Casablanca his favorite film. This is a book in which the cruelties of the age can't begin to erase the glories of real human connection and the memories it leaves behind.”

Join us for some lively conversation and a cup of coffee.

HEAD START/EARLY HEAD START APPLICATIONS

Marquette County Head Start is currently taking applications for both the Head Start and the Early Head Start programs. If you or someone you know would like more information on these programs please call 608-296-2141 ext. 2217 or email tciukaj@capmail.org.

They also have many volunteer opportunities such as office assistant, classroom assistant, cook assistant just to name a few. There is also a list of donations needed for the program – classroom supplies, new or gently used books, paper supplies, toilet paper, paper towels, diapers, cleaning supplies, winter coats and boots. Check out the flyer on the bulletin board in the narthex for more information.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

It takes many volunteers to help the church run smoothly. Won't you consider helping out, some of the opportunities available are:

HEAD USHER

We are in desperate need of volunteers to be head ushers. The responsibilities are not huge or hard – make sure lights are on, assist with visitors and direct ushers with bulletins and offering. There is always someone around to help you out.

COFFEE HOUR

We are looking for someone to take a turn at setting up the coffee cart for the narthex on a Sunday morning. The coffee and juice are provided by the church; you just need to provide a light snack – a few cookies or fruit is great.

LITURGISTS

Our list of volunteers to be liturgist on Sundays is getting very short. This too is not hard - but is a vital part of our worship service.

If you would like more information or would like to volunteer for any of these jobs, please talk to Pastor Kristen or Vikki in the church office.

A SHORT DRAMATICAL/ COMICAL READING

Bring Mom and enjoy a 5 -10 minute reading from the Bible by Pastor Kristen at 9:45 on Mother's Day. Did you know that there are several rather humorous treasures in the Bible? This particular one is a short letter from a man named Agur found in the book of Proverbs. In this letter Agur shares many random thoughts about life... like maybe three... no, four... no, five. No, actually four.

Give your mom the gift of time together in worship and the gift of laughter this Mother's Day.

EASTER EGG HUNT

Our first Easter Egg Hunt was a great success. We raised over $400.00 for the church with the bake sale. Thanks to everyone who helped in any way, if you helped – stuff eggs, at the registration table, at the prize table or donated to the bake sale we couldn't have done it without you.
